

It's a great time for you to join

The Noble Team!

Now Hiring a Full-Time

Employment Consultant

to join Noble's Community Employment Team. As an Employment Consultant, you will be responsible for completing initial assessments, developing employment opportunities & coordinating job placements. Once individuals are hired, you will continue working with them by providing on-the-job training and any ongoing supports needed to help them successfully maintain competitive employment.

Employment Consultants play a vital role in helping individuals develop new work skills, build on their existing skills & demonstrate appropriate work behaviors and other soft skills needed to become fully participating members of their new work team. To do this, you will incorporate a variety of systematic instructional techniques & support strategies.
