OUR PRESENTER

KARLY SCIORTINO-POULTER | As the director of The Arc Advocacy Network at The Arc of Indiana, Karly oversees advocacy programs around the state, working on public policy, increasing opportunities for self-advocates, educating them on employment options, helping families navigate government programs, connecting them to community resources & problem-solving. Karly graduated from IU with a degree in Journalism & Political Science. Through The Arc, Karly sits on the Statewide Transition Workgroup, the Indiana State Adult Guardianship Task Force, The Family and Youth Empowerment Team, and the Indiana Alliance for Prenatal Substance Exposure Board of Directors. She works with state agencies to help families navigate systems & ensure policies are self-advocate and family friendly. Most importantly, Karly is the mother of a 24-year-old son with autism who is growing into an incredible adult & a 18-year-old son with ADHD and a wicked sense of humor. This experience as a parent informs her input with government agencies & allows her to speak with families as a peer.
