November 2025

Raising the Stakes Breaks Records

Noble's 15th annual Raising the Stakes for Noble raised a record-breaking $148,000!

Held on Nov. 14 at The Crane Bay, the *Ray Skillman Avon Hyundai's Raising the Stakes presented by Tito's Handmade Vodka, Isaacs & Isaacs and Corteva Agrisciences sold out months ahead of time as eager attendees purchased their tickets early.

The mission portion of the event highlighted Noble Art, a new way of serving adults with disabilities who enjoy creating art. Be sure to check out this video to see the creative process in action! In addition to dozens of high value items and packages, the Silent Auction featured for the first time six vacation packages ranging from Mexico to Italy.

On behalf of everyone at Noble, we would like to thank our sponsors, donors, attendees, and volunteers for a great night for Noble.

Miniature Horses Ride into Speedway

There's always something going on at Noble, just not usually the four-hoofed kind. On Monday, two miniature horses from Agape Therapeutic Riding visited Noble Art in Speedway, where they were a big hit with everyone.

Looking for a Unique Gift of Art?

This holiday season you have some new options for that hard-to-buy-for person on your list. With the opening of Noble Art, we have a gallery & retail space to showcase & sell pieces created by the artists we serve. Above, Phillip is showing off one of his recent pieces, Savannah Sunrise.

If you're interested in looking around--or even commissioning something--contact Art Specialist Breanna Emmett.

We Want to Know What You Think

We want to give you more Noble news you want & cut back on what you don't need. If you can spare a minute to take our very brief survey, we'd really appreciate it!

Sertoma Makes the Holidays Merry

The holidays will be a lot merrier for 21 kids, thanks to the Broad Ripple Sertoma. Each year, they purchase gift for kids we serve whose families are in tight economic situations.

On Veterans Day, a dozen Sertomans, spouses and staff fanned out across Meijer in Carmel, fulfilling wish lists and loading up carts with toys and clothing items.

NBI Volunteers Add to the Festivities

For the last several years, staff from The National Bank of Indianapolis have spent a morning knocking out what used to take hours: wrapping all those gifts purchased by Sertoma for kids served by Noble.

On Nov. 18, nine volunteers wrapped dozens of bags filled with presents as laughter and Christmas music filled the air. Let the holidays begin!
