NOBLE | ANNUAL REPORT | FY 2026

Serving our community

Sub-branding our services

In FY ‘26, we launched three sub-brands for our service lines—with more to come soon! This gives us an even greater opportunity to share our work in a very visual & accessible way.

"They make you feel like your child is the only one they're working with!"

Parent

In FY ‘26, we served 1,998 babies & toddlers with delays through Noble Kids early intervention services.

Speech, physical, developmental & occupational therapies make a crucial impact on kids like Jaxson, who struggles to stand & walk following his diagnosis of a rare form of encephalitis at 20 months old. But thanks to his therapies, his legs and hips have become stronger. His mom & dad especially appreciate the practical lessons from Jax’s physical therapist that they can now incorporate into life outside of therapy.

Reaching milestones

Noble KIDS

Making friends

Summer Camp is about making friends, trying new things & creating memories that last. At Noble, those moments happen all summer long—just ask best friends Gabe & Ryan! They come back to our camps every year for what their moms say is the best part of the summer!

Let's quantify the fun. Our 2026 Summer Camps wrapped up with some impressive stats:

- ✔ Threw 1,000 water balloons
- ✔ Created 30 kinds of slime with 5 gallons of glue
- ✔ Used 500 toothpicks to build a 300-marshmallow tower
- ✔ Ate 4 pounds of goldfish crackers
- ✔ Used 15 bottles of shaving cream for an art project

Happy, tired campers—

Priceless

400

individuals pursued their career goals through Noble

Recycling technician by day, comic writer by night, Will likes to infuse fun into the workday. However, he is serious about his work having meaning & purpose. He leads by teaching others what he has learned from his own experience, so his teammates count on him to troubleshoot solutions to any issues they encounter.

In FY '26, 400 individuals served by Noble were in various stages of their careers. Another 168 students were in the process of transitioning from the classroom to the workforce.

Like Will, they share the vision behind Noble Works.

Noble WORKS

Showcasing our creativity

47
artists showcased their work at galleries & fairs

In early October, we opened our long-awaited location in Speedway—Noble Art.

As the name suggests, the focus is on creativity in all its forms. Danna likes to use the Art Studio each day to sketch, with his interest mainly in graphite drawings. While he will occasionally branch out to other mediums, he feels most comfortable with a pencil in his hand. Other artists prefer to paint, knit & create beaded pieces. While some—including Danna—display their work in the community to sell it to the public, others create purely for their own enjoyment.

In addition to a studio & gallery, this space in the heart of Speedway also features a large teaching kitchen, day programming, therapy rooms & an outdoor area that will soon feature a Sensory Garden.

served through core services
& ancillary supports

Whether we are working together one-on-one or in small groups, we always have a good time.

From hanging out with volunteers or giving back to the community ourselves, from cheering on the Indy Eleven to learning how to advocate for our rights, there is always lots to do, learn & enjoy. Dale loves using his weekly Respite with Jessica to go out to lunch & then watch sports. He enjoys it all, from golf to football to the Indy 500. Recently, they went to an Indiana Fever game.

In FY '26, we coordinated nearly 41,000 such trips around the community!

Spending time together

"Each time I volunteer with Noble,
I truly get more than I could ever give."

Volunteer

Volunteering to have fun

Our volunteers give their time & talent to:

- ✔ Enrich our services
- ✔ Landscape our gardens
- ✔ Serve on our Board
- ✔ Help our special events succeed
- ✔ Fuel our mission
- ✔ And so much more!

These volunteers include Journey of Hope, whose teams of cyclists ride across the country to raise money & awareness for organizations like Noble. They stop by Noble each summer for our annual Friendship Visit, which means an afternoon of music, games & fun for individuals like Matt.

In FY '26 alone, 453 people volunteered for Noble—and we thank each one of them!

Financials tell a story

What a year it's been for Noble and the people we serve, filled with achievements & opportunities. Whether it's been a high like continuing to serve more than 4,000 individuals each year or a low like ongoing funding struggles, we always keep our tagline of DREAM IT. LIVE IT. at the forefront of every decision, conversation & new staff orientation. After all, we are committed to empowering the people we serve to achieve the goals they hold most dear. To assess our efforts in living by this mission, we use metrics like:

NUMBER OF BABIES & TODDLERS SERVED EACH YEAR

The first three years of life are a critical time for brain development & that makes our early intervention services for babies & toddlers incredibly impactful. As part of the Indiana First Steps service system this past year, we served an all-time high of 1,998 little ones. While the nature of the delay meant some graduated to special education services through their local schools, others left our services having caught up developmentally with their peers.

COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICES RATIO

Years ago, we embarked on a path moving away from segregated services offered in large buildings to more community-based services that use smaller neighborhood locations as a home base. This past year, we took another step in this effort with the closing of our Tibbs location & the opening of Noble Art in Speedway. Because of moves like that, 95% of the services we provide are community-based. Speaking of which, we should note that we provided more than 440,000 hours of service last year!

TRIPS PROVIDED AROUND THE COMMUNITY

This may seem like an unusual metric to track, but it speaks volumes about our efforts to empower individuals to experience everything that our community has to offer. From taking classes & volunteering to cheering on the Pacers & hanging out with friends, it took 40,927 trips to make all that happen.

Let me just end this by saying THANK YOU. We appreciate all that you do to come alongside us to empower the people we serve to DREAM IT. LIVE IT. Now let's make this coming year even better!
